Beauty411 Weekend Digest

By Beauty411 on August 4, 2011

Summer is finally here and I couldn't be more excited! Take a minute to catch up on the week's beauty news and get the 411 on some hot content!

- Clinique has introduced a new mobile app which provides users with weather, humidity, UV index and air pollution info information, alongside weather related tips and product recommendations. I downloaded it and I've been checking it every day. You can get the Clinique app here.
- GUESS & ELLIE have partnered on a casting call to find a "Global Street Chic Ambassador" who will travel around the world taking pictures of the best in street fashion from global style hotspots. From hundreds of applicants, the finalists for the GUESS & ELLIE Choice and Fan Favorite have been selected and are now posted on the GUESS Facebook page. Note on your favorites and give feedback on the finalists' looks by going to the GUESS Facebook page through July 10th.
- Think your guy has what it takes to be the next Every Man Jack? Now through July 31st, guys can sign up at http://www.100percent.com/contest for the chance to win an assortment of premium Every Man Jack products, a trip for two to Las Vegas and a potential spot in the company's upcoming Every Man Jack national print advertising campaign. Plus, every guy who signs up automatically receives a coupon redeemable for a full-size product!
- Now that summer is here, do you have your beach bag filled with the essentials? Check out my recommendations!
- Mary Kay Inspiring Stories is a contest that gives women the chance to make movies with a mission in Hollywood. Produce documentaries that inspire, educate and create a national conversation about the issue of domestic violence alongside celebrities who share a commitment to the cause. From now through June 30th, women ages 18 to 34 are invited and encouraged to apply online at: http://www.MaryKayInspiringStories.com for a chance to get involved in fighting back against the number one cause of injury to women.
